CRIMINAL JUSTICE TRANSFER PATHWAY

Associate of Arts

The Criminal Justice Transfer Pathway provides general education courses in preparation for entering a career in criminal justice. This program is designed to allow for a maximum credit transfer to a bachelor's program at any Ohio state-funded, 4-year school. In addition to acquiring general educational knowledge and in-person experience, the student will work with faculty and advisors during the first semester and continue working with them through their degree program to develop/continue an optimum path of study. This will allow the student to make the most of their educational endeavor and focus on what is needed to follow their desired career pathway. Specialized topics in criminal law and procedure, victimology and professional standards, to name a few, give the student the opportunity further explore the modern-day issues within criminal justice.

JOB OPPORTUNITIES FOR GRADUATES

This program prepares students for entry level positions in a number of public and private security fields including: probation officer, forensic science technician, correctional officer, private detective, security guard, crime scene investigator, computer forensics specialist, fraud investigator, U.S. Postal Inspector, immigration and customs, and enforcement agent.

SALARY

Due to the varied nature of the positions possible with this degree, expected salary ranges vary. However, according to the Bureau of Labor Statistics,

- Employment is expected to grow 7 percent nationally through 2030
- National median pay for police and detectives in 2021 as $66,020 annually
- National median pay for Corrections officers in 2021 was $47,920 annually
- National median pay for Probation officers and Correctional Treatment specialists in 2021 was $63,290 annually
