

Student Orientation Improvement Theory

1. Form campus wide committee including representation from the following areas:
 - Faculty – member from each school and campus
 - Student Government
 - Student Services Staff
 - Library
 - FYE
 - Institutional Research
 - Office of the Registrar
 - Public Relations
 - Marketing
 - Students
2. Include Findlay Campus personnel in the planning and implementation of the program.
3. Coordinate orientation program with FYE.
4. Provide ongoing funding to pay for a permanent full time staff and general program support.
5. Committee responsibilities:
 - Market benefits of orientation program to campus community
 - Develop comprehensive orientation program that interfaces with FYE
 - Develop evaluation process for students and participants
6. Maintain student database in order to provide research data for retention rates.
7. FYE will provide the desired credit course suggested by the team.
