Application process: applications are accepted on a rolling basis. Once you receive your acceptance email you can begin tracking hours. All hours accumulated during your registered time at Owens will count towards recognition, even if you completed the hours prior to applying for program acceptance. You will just still need signature verification of the completed hours.

For your application to be considered "complete" you must include the following:

a) the completed and signed application form (this can be printed and returned to College Hall 151, sent by inter-office mail or scanned and emailed to connections@owens.edu)

b) an attached copy of answers to the following questions:

1. Why are you interested in the Scholar program?

2. What community issue are you most passionate about addressing while in this program?

a. Why are you passionate about this issue and how does it relate to your course of study?

b. How do you hope to address this issue with your service or experiential learning opportunity?

c. In what ways do you hope to be challenged?

d. How do you hope to grow as a person through this experience.

c) A current copy of your transcript (unofficial)

PLEASE READ CAREFULLY

I have reviewed and understand the requirements for the Service and Leadership Scholar program. I understand it is my responsibility to complete all the requirements and to turn in all required forms documenting my progress in the program. I also understand that I will be placed on probationary status for one semester if I don't meet these requirements; after one semester with no contact, I will be dropped from the Service Scholars program. I will promptly report any change in my contact information, chosen major and date of graduation to the program coordinator.

*Reminder – in order to be recognized as a service and leadership scholar during commencement you application materials must be received, approved and confirmed at least one month prior to your date of graduation. Certificates, transcript notes and cords can be granted without commencement recognition or can also be obtained post-commencement.

Service Scholars will be identified at commencement with a red, white and silver Scholars cord and will receive a certificate of completion.

Additionally, Scholars will be invited to a Recognition Breakfast to be recognized with their faculty, family members and campus leadership.
