

2023-2024 Petition for Independent Status Due to Unusual Circumstances

OFFICE OF FINANCIAL AID

Purpose of this form

The Office of Financial Aid at Owens Community College is required to consider parent information when determining financial aid eligibility for students who are not independent according to the FAFSA® definition below. Exceptions to this requirement are made only when adequate documentation of unusual circumstances exists. Unusual circumstances generally are defined by a student's inability to have contact with their parents.

You are considered an independent student for financial aid purposes if you meet one of the following conditions at the time you complete and sign the 2023-2024 Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA)®. If you meet one of these conditions, you do not need to complete this form, but you may need to provide documentation to the Student Service Center if requested.

- You were born before January 1, 2000.
- You are married.
- You are a graduate student working on a post-baccalaureate degree.
- You are a veteran of the U.S. Armed Forces, or are currently serving on Active Duty.
- You have legal dependents, other than a spouse, who meet the definition of a legal dependent found in the FAFSA® instructions.
- You were an orphan, in foster care, or a ward of the court at any time when you were age 13 or older.
- You were emancipated by a court in your state of legal residence while you were a minor.
- You were in legal guardianship as determined by a court in your state of legal residence.
- On or after July 1, 2022, you were considered to be an unaccompanied youth who was homeless, or self-supporting and at risk of being homeless, according to certain authorities as defined by law.

If you are approved for independent status based on Unusual Circumstances at Owens or another institution, you are considered independent for all subsequent award years unless you notify us or we become aware of information that is inconsistent with this status, in which case you will be asked for further clarification.

If another school has approved a Petition for Independent Status due to Unusual Circumstances for you, this form is not required. Submit written documentation from that school's Financial Aid Office confirming the approval.

Students may appeal for the following reasons:

1. Severe circumstances within your family prevent you from obtaining your parents' financial information.
Examples are:
 - a. an abusive home situation which is detrimental to your physical and/or mental well being
 - b. abandonment by both parents
 - c. history of parental alcohol or drug abuse
 - d. your parents are incarcerated
2. Death of a parent after filing the FAFSA® and the surviving parent meets one of the conditions in number 1.
3. You have unusual circumstances not already described above which prevent any and all contact with your parents in order to obtain parental information for FAFSA® filing.

Information submitted with this form will be held in the strictest confidence.

Appeals cannot be considered for the following reasons:

- You live on your own without parental financial support.
- Your parents do not contribute or cannot afford to contribute to your college expenses.
- Your parents refuse to provide information for the FAFSA®.
- Your parents no longer claim you on their income taxes.
