3358:11-2-05 Admissions for international students policy.

(A) Purpose. Owens community college welcomes qualified students from other countries. International students contribute to student life and offer unique perspectives in the classrooms, while providing benefits to the community. The college is authorized under federal law to enroll non-immigrant alien students. Acceptance as a new applicant from abroad or as a transfer student can be made for fall or spring semesters.

(B) Implementation. The office of the provost will implement procedures, guidelines and forms which are consistent with the provisions of this rule.
