3358:11-2-26 Credit by proficiency exam policy.

(A) Purpose. A proficiency examination is designed to measure the student’s level of knowledge and/or skill in the content covered by a given course or courses. Proficiency examinations may not be available for all courses. Passing a proficiency examination replaces the need for a student to actually register for and complete a course or courses in a program.

(B) Implementation. The office of the provost will implement procedures, guidelines, forms that are consistent with the provisions of this rule.
