A meeting of the Board of Trustees was held in the Board Room, Administration Hall, on the Owens Community College Toledo Campus.

Call to Order – Chair Rich Rowe called the meeting to order at 12:36 p.m. and directed the record to show the meeting was held in accordance with the Ohio Revised Code, Chapter 3358 and the policies of the Board of Trustees.

Roll Call – Roll call was taken, and the following members were present: Mary Beth Hammond, Srinivas Hejeebu, Ronald McMaster, Edwin Nagle, Rich Rowe and Thomas Uhler (6).

Approval of the Minutes of the Board of Trustees – The minutes of the August 5, 2014, regular meeting were reviewed. The Chair declared the minutes approved as circulated.

President’s Report – President Mike Bower presented his activity report for August and September. He commented on appointing a team to review the textbook process and that he received Trustee Nagle’s concerns of which he will provide information when the data is compiled. President Bower recognized Thomas Perin, Associate Vice President, Institutional Effectiveness, and Paul Adams, Professor and President, Owens Faculty Association, for their support of the faculty professional development sessions on student engagement. He commented on reviewing aviation facilities for the potential development of an academic collaboration with Bowling Green State University. He commented on traveling with Trustee Nagle and members of the administration to Pittsburgh to meet John R. Block, Publisher and Editor, on discussion of the College’s mission, higher education and economic development. Trustee Nagle commented on Mr. Block’s knowledge of the College and the necessity of building relationships. President Bower closed his report with a brief update of the search process to fill the Executive Director, Institutional Advancement position, and he recognized Brian Paskvan, Executive Director, Workforce and Training for his presentation to the Regional Growth Partnership.

Associate Vice President of Academic Affairs Report – Denise Smith, Associate Vice President of Academic Affairs, commented on partnering opportunities with Toledo Public Schools in scholarships, transfer options and the honors program; the University of Toledo in criminal justice; and Bowling Green State University in exercise science. She shared the success of the 90.72 percent pass rate of the registered nursing graduates who passed the NCLEX-RN national exam on the first attempt and of the 100 percent pass rate of the practical nursing graduates who passed the NCLEX-PN national exam. She closed her report with recognizing 71 student volunteers who completed 100 hours of service and 37 student, faculty and staff volunteers who completed 110 hours of service in Toledo during the United Way Days of Caring in September. Additionally, Professor Richard Myers’ English 091 class provided and served a spaghetti dinner to 40 residents of Fountain Square apartments.
Treasurer’s Report – Laurie Sabin, Vice President/Treasurer, commented on tuition revenue and reductions in expenses to preserve the fiscal year 2015 budget net income. She commented that Clark, Schaeffer, Hackett and Company auditors are progressing and will be on site at the end of September to complete the financial audit for the College, the Foundation and grants. She reported that the website redesign project has completed the discovery and strategic phases, and the vendor, iFactory, recently presented strategic recommendations to the College. The vendor will continue through the architect and design phases to develop the overall look and feel of the website. The website redesign project is expected to be completed by May 2015.

Policy Recommendations:
- Amendment of 3358:11-4-17 Anti-discrimination and Harassment Policy

RESOLUTION 2014-09-16-04
WHEREAS, Owens Community College strictly prohibits discrimination based on protected classes including sexual harassment, sexual assault, dating violence, domestic violence and stalking; and

WHEREAS, the Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act, has been substantively amended by the Violence Against Women Reauthorization Act; and

WHEREAS, the United States Department of Education, Office of Civil Rights, continues to provide guidance to higher education institutions regarding obligations under Title IX; and
WHEREAS, through convening the Campus Safety Compliance Team, the College endeavored to 1) ensure clarity of the application of the 3358:11-4-17 Anti-discrimination and Harassment Policy; and, 2) update associated procedures; and

WHEREAS, in coordination with the 3358:11-4-17 Anti-discrimination and Harassment Policy and Procedures, the Campus Safety Compliance Team has provided comprehensive guidance, resources and protocols for addressing incidents of sexual misconduct by drafting the Title IX/Sexual Misconduct Procedures; and

WHEREAS, the Campus Safety Compliance Team and General Counsel with the President recommend the amendment of said policy to ensure that the most effective guidance, policy statements and educational and support resources are available to students and employees with respect to discrimination, sexual harassment and sexual violence on college campuses:

- 3358:11-4-17 Anti-discrimination and Harassment Policy

WHEREAS FURTHERMORE, the amended 3358:11-4-17 Anti-discrimination and Harassment Policy and the new Title IX/Sexual Misconduct procedures shall be filed with the Ohio Legislative Service Commission;

APPENDIX I
Amendment of Payroll Policy

3358:11-5-03 Payroll policy policies.

(A) Purpose. Owens Community College community college employees will be paid on a biweekly basis.

(B) Timesheets. Non-exempt staff are paid on the basis of a biweekly timesheet maintained by the employee and authorized by the immediate supervisor. Some non-exempt staff, because of the nature of their position, will be required to use a time clock in lieu of filling out a timesheet.

1. Overtime. There may be occasions when a supervisor may request an employee to work beyond the normal hours. In such cases, the non-exempt employee shall earn overtime only when authorized by the appropriate supervisor. For those approved hours beyond forty (or thirty-seven and a half hours for those employees waiving breaks) (37.5) during the week, the employee shall be paid at 1.5 times the normal rate. An employee who elects compensatory time shall do so in accordance with established procedure and may not accumulate more than sixty hours of compensatory time at any one time. Compensatory time, which from employment with the college, whichever happens first, shall have the accumulated hours paid in cash at 1.5 times the normal rate of pay.

2. Missed work. The employee is expected to account for missed days or periods such as paid sick leave, paid vacation, unpaid leave or other circumstances which may prevail.

3. Flex-time. Exempt and non-exempt staff will be allowed to flex their work schedules in accordance with established procedure.

(C) Payroll deductions.

1. Federal tax. Federal income taxes are deducted from each biweekly paycheck on the gross salary of the employee.

2. State tax. The employee will pay state taxes on gross salary earnings.

3. City tax. City tax is deducted from the paychecks. If the community in which an employee resides has a city or village income tax, the employee should complete a city tax form and submit it to the human resources office.

4. Medicare tax. Anyone hired or rehired on or after April 1, 1986, is required by the federal government to have 1.45 per cent deducted from their payroll check for medicare. (The college also pays an additional 1.45 per cent to medicare for each employee hired or rehired on or after April 1, 1986.)
(5) School district tax. If an employee’s school district levies a tax, this tax will be deducted from the employee’s gross pay.

(6) Annuities. College employees are able to make contributions to plans providing annuities through payroll deduction. If an employee is interested in participating in such a plan an annuity, contact the human resources office for a listing of approved annuity companies providers.

(7) Contributions. The college also provides a payroll deduction program for employees to make contributions to college-designated organizations United Way, Community Shares, or the Owens State Community College Foundation community college foundation.

(8) Ohio deferred compensation program. The college provides for payroll deduction for employees participating in the Ohio deferred compensation program.

(9) U.S. savings bonds. The college provides for payroll deduction for employees to purchase United States savings bonds.

(D) Pay schedule/check distribution.

(1) Pay schedule. Fridays, every other week, are the scheduled pay dates.

(2) Check distribution. Individual payroll checks may be picked up at the bursar’s office on Thursday preceding a pay date after four thirty p.m. Checks may also be included in a departmental pay batch group from three p.m. to five p.m. and continuing on Friday from eight a.m. to noon after which time the checks will be mailed. Checks, which have not been picked up by three p.m. on Friday of a pay week, will be placed in the mail and sent to the employee’s home. Changes to this schedule may occur and will be communicated to all employees.

(3) Direct deposit. With direct deposit, an employee’s pay will be automatically deposited in their account on payday. Employees may review and print an electronic pay stub, which shows their earnings, taxes, and deductions.

APPENDIX II
Amendment of Anti-discrimination and Harassment Policy

3358:11-4-17 Anti-discrimination and harassment policy.

(A) Purpose. Owens community college strongly opposes and will not tolerate harassment or discrimination on the basis of age, color, disability, national origin, race, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, military status, or veteran status. This prohibition extends to discrimination or harassment, based on the protected classes, including the creation of an intimidating, hostile or offensive working or learning environment. Sexual misconduct, sexual assault, dating violence, domestic violence and stalking are forms of sexual harassment prohibited by this rule.

(B) The college recognizes all employees and students should be able to work and learn in safety and dignity and should not have to endure insulting, degrading or objectionable treatment. Any individual who files a complaint or participates in an investigation shall be protected from any form of retaliation arising out of the filing of the complaint or participation in the investigation.

(C) Discrimination and harassment are illegal. This rule and the associated procedures are not intended to impair or limit the right of anyone to seek a remedy available under state or federal law. This rule may in some respects exceed the requirements of applicable law. However, this rule will not be enforced so as to infringe upon rights of the first amendment of the United States Constitution, including academic freedom.

(D) Application. This rule and the associated procedures are applicable to all aspects of college operations and programs. It applies to all college students and employees, including student-employees, administrators, faculty and staff (bargaining and non-bargaining unit members) as well as to visitors or guests on campus to the extent that there is an allegation of harassment or discrimination made by them against college students or employees. It also applies to all third-party vendors, contractors, subcontractors, and others who do business with the college. Such prohibition extends to off campus conduct or the online/virtual environment if the conduct is in connection with college operations or a college-sponsored program and poses an obvious and serious threat of harm to students or employees, or may have the effect of creating a hostile work and/or educational environment.

(E) Reporting. Any person who believes he or she has been a victim of discrimination or harassing behavior is strongly encouraged to pursue relief by reporting the discriminatory or harassing behavior to the appropriate individual(s). Reports can be made directly to the chief diversity officer within the office of equal opportunity and inclusiveness officer or designee who is serving as the affirmative action officer under the federal statutes of Titles VI, VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 and Section 504 of the Vocational Rehabilitation Act of 1973. Alternatively, a victim grievant may report the behavior to the director of human resources, the dean of student life director of student life and community standards, or any vice president/vice provost, dean, chair, director or department head, including the college chief of police officers with the department of public safety.
(F) Any employee administrator, as designated in paragraph (C) of this rule, who has received a report or who has knowledge of discrimination or harassment must promptly inform the chief diversity officer within the office of equal opportunity and inclusiveness officer. The said officer will be available to respond to any questions or concerns regarding this rule and associated procedures.

(G) Action. Each report of discrimination or harassment will be promptly and impartially investigated. Interim measures to prevent continued discrimination/harassment during the complaint investigation will be considered and implemented as deemed appropriate. If the college determines by a preponderance of the evidence there is reasonable cause to believe that a violation has occurred, the college will take action to provide appropriate relief to the grievant victim and steps will be taken to prevent future discrimination/harassment and remedy discriminatory effects. This may include disciplinary action against the accused as outlined in applicable student and employee conduct and disciplinary rules, procedures and guidelines as well as associated procedures implemented pursuant to this rule.

(I) Implementation. The vice president, human resources and the associate vice provost, vice president, enrollment management and student services will jointly implement procedures and forms, which are consistent with the provisions of this rule and applicable law.
